4. Products

Descriptions of Products, sizes and characteristics are merely indicative and may vary within reasonable tolerance from the actual Products. Molteni&C reserves the right to make technological, size and aesthetic enhancements to its Products without prior notice, also after the order confirmation, but without changing their essential characteristics and quality. The illustrations on the price list show the general size and aesthetic characteristics of the Product, without specifically defining the construction details. The Products may differ from the samples in showrooms/stores in terms of: tone of colour for lacquered, colour and grain for wood, veins and colour for granite and quartzite, veining and colour for stone and marble. Such differences cannot be ground for objections by the Client.

Molteni&C Products are made from raw materials of the highest quality. The Client should be aware that Products are subject to change, especially variations in shades of colour, due to aging, light, humidity and environmental conditions. These changes are to be understood as a guarantee of the quality of the raw materials used and for no reason may be contested. Any orders to complete, repair, alter or replace Products may give rise to differences in the grain, colour or other differences that are to be considered inevitable and incontestable. Lengths of fabric indicated on the price list refer to single-colour fabrics, 140 cm wide. For fabrics with patterns, please contact Molteni&C in advance. Some Products in the photo catalogues may be out of Production. The only Products available are those included on the price list. Orders received containing requests for Products in the catalogues that are not available cannot be processed.

4.1 Special products

Any request to modify a Product, with respect to what is indicated on the price list – other sizes, features, finishes – will be considered a request for a custom-made special Product. The feasibility study of special Products requires a specific procedure to be determined by the design and Production departments of Molteni&C. The Client may send their request to the Sales Office, which will initiate the necessary internal procedures and confirm in writing if the proposal is feasible and the relative supplementary charge. Any variations of the features and finishes of listed Products will incur a supplementary charge, to be determined by Molteni&C on a case-by-case basis. The client may not modify Molteni&C Products.

4.2 Client fabrics or leathers

The price of the “Client fabric/leather” category corresponds to the ‘white O’ category and includes the cost of upholstering. Prior to shipping the quantity of “Client fabric” necessary for processing the order, Molteni&C requires a 20x20 fabric sample in order to verify its suitability, which will then be confirmed or rejected in writing by the Molteni&C Sales Office. The fabrics or leathers provided by the Client must be received by Molteni&C with all shipping charges paid. Otherwise, any transport or customs duties will be charged to the Client. The transport document must state in detail: Client name on the invoice (final client), recipient for technical service time and processing (Molteni&C), final destination (Client), quantity, value, customs fee and weight. Each “Client fabric” must clearly indicate which is the front and back side. Molteni&C assumes no liability for the technical and aesthetic performance of “Client fabrics”.

5. Samples and tolerances

Samples of finishes and fabrics manufactured by Molteni&C and provided as samples are merely indicative and might be subject to changes due to light, environmental conditions, and aging. In case of additional or replacement items it is not possible to guarantee the same grain and shades.

6. Complaints

If a defect or anomaly is found in the Product, please submit the specific claim form to Molteni&C Sales Office, which can be downloaded from the Trade Area on the company's website: www.molteni.it, along with photos and the necessary documents. Each claim form must clearly state the confirmation number and the original invoice number. Molteni&C reserves the right to accept or reject the claim, and to this end, a complete or partial return of the goods might be requested for a quality inspection to be conducted internally. All costs related to the return will be borne by the Client, save for refund in the case that the complaint is accepted. Any expenses due to damage during transport will be borne by the Client. In the case of ascertained nonconformities, Molteni&C will decide whether to repair or replace the Product subject to complaint, in its sole discretion. For complaints related to damage during transport, please refer to article 3. Any compensation of incidental expenses or damages is excluded. Without prejudice to the provisions set forth in the Consumer Code pursuant to Legislative Decree No. 206 of 6 September 2005, as amended, applicable only to Agreements with a consumer, the Client undertakes to provide warranty and after-sales services to all end-consumers who, having purchased the Products, may request them, including end-consumers who have not purchased the aforesaid Products in the Client's point of sale, subject to a written request by Molteni&C.

7. Warranty

Molteni&C is subject to the warranty obligations under the legislation applicable in Italy at the time of entering into the sale agreement. Save for the provisions under Article 3 as regards delivery, inspection and forfeiture of the warranty against defects of the sold Products, the responsibility of Molteni&C regarding the Products is in any event limited to the amount paid by the Client for the defective Product, with the exclusion, inter alia, of:

- defects not directly ascribable to Molteni&C;
- defects due to improper use of the Products;
- defects caused to normal wear and tear of the Product;
- defects caused by improper maintenance or cleaning of the Product or by Client's negligence or inexperience;
- defects on Products that have been tampered with, repaired or modified by the Client or by third parties on the Client's behalf, without prior authorisation in writing from Molteni&C;
- defects caused by improper transport, handling, installation and assembly of the Products;
- defects reported after the deadline under article 3 of the General Terms and Conditions and, in any event, after the limitation period under law, of 1 (one) year from the delivery of the Product;
- Products for which the Client has not paid Molteni&C the full purchase price.

If the defect found is covered by the conventional warranty provided by Molteni&C, it is in the sole discretion of the company whether to repair or replace all or part of the Product in question. In the case of repair, Molteni&C will decide whether to carry out the repair at the Client's premises or have the Product returned to the company. In case of damages caused by the Product to third parties due to failure to comply with instructions or regulations regarding assembly, installation, use and maintenance of the Products, the Client expressly agrees to indemnify and hold Molteni&C harmless from any claim, action, demand, cost and expense of third parties, including legal fees.

With reference to the provisions of Article 134<sup>1</sup> of the Consumer Code, Italian Legislative Decree No. 206 of 6 September 2005 and subsequent amendments, the Client may bring recourse against Molteni&C within one year from its action in response to the final consumer (such as a price refund or payment of the cost for repairing or replacing all or part of the Product under complaint). The provisions under the Consumer Code, pursuant to Italian Legislative Decree No. 6 of 6 September 2005, apply only to consumer protection, provided that the contractual party is a professional figure or a legal entity acting in the exercise of their business, commercial, artisan or professional activity or their intermediary. Therefore, this legislation applies to agreements between a professional figure and a consumer and does not apply in the case of agreements between professionals or between companies.

8. Prices

The prices set forth in the Products are expressed, alternatively or cumulatively, in Euros, other foreign currencies and/or Points and are exclusive of VAT and any other applicable taxes and duties, as set forth from time to time in the Price List in force on the date of receipt of the Purchase Order by the Seller.

Design, transport, installation and assembly services are not included.

The supply of Products to Customers shall be governed by the prices set forth in the Price List in force and the commercial conditions applicable as of the date of the order confirmation, as well as by the contractual terms and conditions applicable on the same date.

9. Payments

Payment methods and terms are given on each order confirmation. Failure to comply with the payment terms will result in a charge for late-payment interest at the rate applicable in Italy. Molteni&C reserves the right to suspend supplies to the Client in case of failure to comply with the terms of payment, and to accept any new orders only after full payment of the amount due for previous sales. Any complaints regarding Products received or the agreement do not justify a delay in or suspension of the payment of the agreed amount. Any extension of the payment terms, agreed between the parties in writing, does not constitute a novation of the relative agreement and/or a waiver of the amount due by Molteni&C.

1 1. Where the final seller is liable to the consumer because of a lack of conformity attributable to an act or omission of a person in the preceding steps of the same chain of distribution contracts, including the failure to provide updates for goods with digital elements pursuant to Article 130(2), the final seller shall have a right of recourse against the person or persons responsible in the chain of commercial transactions.

2. The end seller who has fulfilled the remedies exercised by the consumer may take recourse action, within one year of provision of the service, against the person or persons responsible to obtain refund of the amount granted.

10. Retention of title

Unless otherwise agreed between the Parties, pursuant to Articles 1523-1526 of the Italian Civil Code, the transfer of ownership of Products from Molteni&C to the Client will take place upon full, irrevocable and unconditional payment of the balance due for the same. If Products are purchased in instalments and/or with the granting of deferred payment terms providing for the payment of an amount as a down payment and a balance of the final price; furthermore, in the event of default by the Customer (by way of non-exhaustive example, where the Customer pays the agreed down payment but fails to collect the Products, or collects them only in part), any instalments already paid and/or the amount paid as a down payment on the higher agreed price will be retained by Molteni&C as penalty, without prejudice for further damages. It is understood that the foregoing shall likewise apply in the event that the Client has duly provided Molteni&C with a letter of credit or any other equivalent payment instrument.

11. Right to withdrawal

Molteni&C has the right to withdraw from the Agreement stipulated with the Client at any time and with immediate effect, by registered letter or certified e-mail, in case of default and/or changes in the financial conditions of the Client, and/or lengthy delay, and/or in the case of high overall financial exposure (also due to other sales) of the Client and no compensation/indemnification shall be owed by Molteni&C to the Client.

12. Warranty of Authenticity

Molteni&C guarantees the authenticity of its Products only if purchased directly from Molteni&C, or at its Flagship stores and authorised retailers. All Products bearing the "Molteni&C" trademark are 100% made in Italy, with the exception of rugs and accessories for which the origin will be indicated in the relevant specifications on the price list. To protect the authenticity of its Products, Molteni&C accompanies each delivery with a personalised PIC – Product Information Card, a certificate of authenticity and traceability of the Products purchased.

13. Force Majeure

Any delay in the fulfilment of any obligation under this Agreement by either of the Parties shall not be considered a breach of this Agreement and the period of time required for fulfilment shall be extended for a period of time equal to that of the delay, on the condition that this delay is caused by or the result of force majeure. In other words, acts of terrorism, insurrection, revolutions, embargoes, fire, explosion, flooding, epidemic, pandemic, for example H1N1, COVID-19, lack of material or energy or other unforeseeable causes beyond the control and with no blame or negligence attributable to the interested party.

The party affected must notify the other party without delay and undertake to adopt all reasonable measures necessary to alleviate the effect of this cause as quickly as possible. Under no circumstances may an event of force majeure excuse the Client from making payments when due.

14. Intellectual property rights

The intellectual and industrial property rights on the Products and trademarks are and will remain the exclusive property of Molteni&C and the Client acknowledges that they have no right or claim on the same. The Client also undertakes not to behave in any way that may harm or damage Molteni&C's intellectual property rights and, in any case, to refrain from using and registering trademarks, domain names, signs and in general any other distinctive sign similar to or likely to be confused with the trademarks and rights owned by Molteni&C. The Client will use the Molteni&C's trademarks in accordance with the instructions received by Molteni&C and solely for the purposes referred to in these General Terms and Conditions.

15. Confidentiality and personal data protection

All Confidential Information (as hereinafter defined) shall remain the sole property of the disclosing Party and its confidentiality shall be maintained and protected by the receiving Party with the same degree of care as the receiving Party uses for its own confidential and proprietary information, but in no event less than a reasonable degree of care. The receiving Party shall not use the Confidential Information of the other party except as necessary to fulfil its obligations under this Agreement, nor shall it disclose such Confidential Information to any third party without the prior written consent of the disclosing Party. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, each Party may disclose the other party's Confidential Information to its employees on a need-to-know basis, as required by applicable Law or to its attorneys, accountants, or other professional advisors, provided they are advised of the confidential nature of such information and agree to the confidentiality obligations set forth herein.

The data provided by the Client (for example: name, surname, contact information of their legal representative/corporate representatives) within the scope of the sales relationship undertaken with Molteni&C will be kept and processed by Molteni&C (the Data Controller) in compliance with Article 13 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (hereafter "GDPR") and, more in general, in compliance with all other national and international standards and provisions governing the processing of personal data which are currently in force or which, in the future, will modify, integrate or supersede the current laws, by adopting any adequate security measure, in accordance with the provisions of Article 32 GDPR. Each Party expressly authorises the insertion of their data in the databases of the other party, allowing the other party to process and disclose these data to third parties, only if such processing or disclosure is necessary for the performance of this Agreement and/or it is mandatory under the applicable law, and provided that both Client and any such third parties comply with the confidentiality obligations set forth in this article in connection with the processing of such data. The Parties also declare and acknowledge that the processing of personal data covered by this Agreement is necessary for fulfilment of the same and that failure to provide such data might prevent its fulfilment.

16. Applicable law and exclusive jurisdiction

These General Terms and Conditions and every sales agreement that is the subject of the same are governed by the Italian laws, with the exception of relative private international laws. The 1980 United Nations Convention on Contracts for the international sale of goods does not apply to these General Terms and conditions. Failure by Molteni&C to exercise any right under these General Terms does not amount to acquiescence or to a waiver of such rights.

All the disputes arising between the Parties out of or related to these General Terms and Conditions, including but not limited to any controversy relating to the validity, interpretation, effects and resolution of the same shall be settled with exclusive jurisdiction in Monza (Italy).

D.859.1 Tables

GIO PONTI

1959 / 2018

In 1958 Gio Ponti was enlisted to design the auditorium for the Time&Life Building at 1271 Avenue of the Americas in New York. The building housed the headquarters of Time Inc., publisher of influential, historical magazines such as Time, Life, Fortune, People, and Sports Illustrated. This was Ponti's most prestigious project in New York. The D.859.1 table, designed primarily as a meeting table for up to ten people, stands out among the auditorium furnishings not only for its impressive size—over 3,60 meters long—but especially for its simple yet refined design. The legs are notable for their fine-membered modernity, creating a trapezoidal single-span bridge upon which the large tapered top conveys the idea of aerodynamics. Originally made of solid ash with brass ferrules, it is now also available in black stained ash. In addition to its original dimensions, the D.859.1 is available in two smaller version that faithfully reproduce the harmony and proportions of the original design.

TECHNICAL INFORMATION

- Top Composite support in spruce slats (Picea abies) with external parts in high density fiber panel, covered with sliced veneer in ash wood painted in the varieties according to product specifications.
- Feet Feet in satin finish brass and floor support in plastic material.

FINISHES

1947 / 2021

1945 marked the end of the Second World War and the problem of converting war productions into “peace” productions immediately arose in order to restart economic activity. Gio Ponti made contact with an important aircraft manufacturer who owned a factory specialising in the manufacture of gliders. Wood and cloth are, together with great craftsmanship, the most commonly used raw materials. It is, therefore, natural to move into the production of furniture and, as it happens, also wooden toys. In 1947 Gio Ponti designed a “bedroom for a bachelor”, presented first at the Galleria del Sagrato, then at the RIMA - Riunione Italiana Mostre per l'Arredamento - at the Triennale, both in Milan, and finally at the XVI International Exhibition in Barcelona in '48.

More than 70 years after its original design, the D.847.1 console table is reborn thanks to the Heritage Collection reissue project by Molteni&C, in collaboration with the Gio Ponti Archives. As with all the projects in the Heritage Collection, careful study of drawings, photos and period materials has made it possible to faithfully reproduce the D.847.1 desk in all its details, bringing to light a masterpiece, inspired by the high level of craftsmanship in solid wood processing.

GIO PONTI

HERITAGE COLLECTION

D.153.1 Armchair
GIO PONTI
1953 / 2012

The D.153.1 armchair is part of the furniture of Gio Ponti's private house in via Dezza in Milan. The two-coloured leather or "Punteggiato" Rubelli fabric covers are unusual. The fabric, designed by Ponti in 1934, reinterprets the age-old technique of velvet-weaving, bringing it up to date with contemporary patterns, such as close sequences of staggered disks with various gradations of colour.

D.154.2 Armchair

GIO PONTI
1953-57 / 2015

The armchair, was designed for one of the projects closest to Gio Ponti's heart, the villa of the Planchart collectors in Caracas (1953-57). Today the armchair, which is like a cosy shell, has a rigid polyurethane frame, a soft polyurethane counter-frame and a cushion, and is upholstered in the Molteni&C textile range, with the option of differentiating the component parts.

The D.154.2 armchair was designed for one of the projects closest to Gio Ponti's heart: the villa of the Planchart collectors in Caracas (1953-57). With its enveloping and sinuous profile that inspires both admiration and comfort, the armchair encapsulates Ponti's architectural brilliance and ebullient spirit. In the "Villa Planchart" version, the D.154.2 recalls the original colours conceived by Ponti to enrich and harmonize with the spirit of the villa in Venezuela.

GIO PONTI

HERITAGE COLLECTION

D.157.6 DUE FOGLIE    Sofa
1957 / 2024

Due Foglie made its first appearance at the Milan Triennial XI, which was inaugurated in July 1957. The central theme related to the relationships between the arts, contemporary architecture, artistic production and industrial design. Due Foglie reappeared in Como in the autumn of 1957 at the exhibition ‘Colours and Shapes in the House of Today’ held at Villa Erba, for which Ponti designed Environment 18. The sofa subsequently disappeared and reappeared a few years later in Villa Planchart in Caracas, an absolute architectural masterpiece designed by Gio Ponti. Due Foglie is a revolutionary project created more than 10 years before a design that would be developed and introduced to the public only at the end of the 1960s and 70s due to industrial production enabled by technological developments, especially in the production of polyurethane cold foam. Molteni&C, in collaboration with the Gio Ponti Archives, has begun in-depth research on this object by consulting partly unpublished technical and photographic documentation, re-introducing the Due Foglie sofa in the Heritage collection as close as possible to the original while using sustainable construction technologies.

HERITAGE COLLECTION

ROUND D.154.5 Armchair

GIO PONTI

1954 / 2021

More than 60 years after the original idea, Round (D.154.5) was reborn thanks to the Heritage Collection reissue project by Molteni&C, in collaboration with the Gio Ponti Archives. As with all the projects in the collection, the careful study of drawings, photos and period materials has made it possible to faithfully reproduce the armchair in every detail, bringing a forgotten masterpiece back to life.

WERNER BLASER
1955 / 2016

MHC.1 is a new edition of the prototype of the first modern piece of furniture made by Molteni&C, the chest of drawers designed by Werner Blaser. Though it was never produced industrially, in 1955 it won first prize at the Cantù "Prima mostra selettiva - Concorso internazionale del mobile", a competition designed to re-qualify the image of Italian furniture making. The jury was made up of Gio Ponti, Alvar Alto, Romano Barocchi, Carlo de Carli and Finn Juhl. The unusual joinery features a simple three-fork joint. After an initial limited reissue of 100 numbered pieces, it is now available in two new unnumbered versions in the new black stained and honey stained ash finishes.

MHC.3 MISS

TOBIA SCARPA
1986 / 2016

A re-make of the Miss chair, designed by Afra and Tobia Scarpa in 1986. The form is linked to a system of soft, unbroken, linear rhythms. The legs are slim and divaricated, to ensure stability. The front ones are bent to form the armrests and continue into the curve of the backrest. The back legs reach the backrest from behind, underpinning it. The seat is inserted between the lines and links them. Tobia Scarpa has re-designed the armrest joint to make the chair comfier and more linear.

MONK
TOBIA SCARPA
1973 / 2025

For 2025, Molteni&C proposes a re-edition of the iconic Monk chair, originally designed by Afra and Tobia Scarpa in 1973. Preserving the character of the original, Monk presents a solid wood frame made of two trestles attached to metal tubing creating a single element for the seat and back. The structural parts are joint by screws with the decorative touch of large hubs in burnished steel. The seat structure is made of two hide leather sections shaped for comfort and available in any color from the Molteni&C collection. Monk is also proposed in a lower and wider armchair version, designed to enhance any living space.

BLEVIO

IGNAZIO GARDELLA
1930 / 2022

Designed in 1930, Blevio is a table that Gardella (1905-1999) made as a single model for his own family home, Villa Usuelli in Blevio on Lake Como. It is an extraordinarily harmonious and timeless piece of furniture, which today becomes collective heritage; it combines the purest features and intrinsic simplicity. Gardella was already an established figure on the Italian architecture scene and in those same years he designed Alessandria's Vittorio Emanuele III Sanatorium (1928-1938) with its rationalist chapel, the Hygiene and Prophylaxis Laboratory (1933-1938) and the Antituberculosis Dispensary (1933-1938).

TECHNICAL INFORMATION

- Eclipse top Painted medium density fibreboard panel and with a metal support structure.
- Marble top Painted medium density fibreboard panel with a perimeter profile in curved extruded aluminium and a marble top. Metal support structure.
